

PathWays of the River Valley Frequently Asked Introductory Questions

What types of services does PathWays provide?

PathWays provides service coordination, day and vocational services, individualized residential supports, family supports and respite to those who are eligible for services.

Who is eligible for services?

Children from birth to age 3 who have a developmental delay or established disability, as well as children from age 3 to 21 and adults who have a developmental disability or acquired brain disorder.

Are there income limits to be eligible for services?

No. Eligibility does not depend on income or insurance.

How do I apply for Area Agency services?

Contact our Intake Coordinator. The Intake Coordinator may ask for your assistance with gathering the needed information. You may reach the intake coordinator by calling our main numbers in Claremont and Lebanon. The office closest to you would be the most appropriate number to call.

What happens once I complete the application?

Your application will be reviewed by the agency. Eligibility for services for people with Developmental Disabilities and Acquired Brain Disorder will be determined upon meeting the criteria established in RSA 171-A. The Intake Coordinator may ask for your assistance with gathering the needed information. You will receive a letter regarding the determination.

Do you have a waitlist?

Yes, the number of individuals on our waitlist changes frequently. The length of time someone remains on the waitlist varies based upon individual need and availability of funding.

How does someone get on the waitlist?

Talk with your Family Services/Support Coordinator.
